FOREWORD

We, the yearbook staff, have altered the style of our book in an attempt to make it a more appealing and effective representation of the school year. This resulted in three major differences from previous yearbooks. The first is the informal arrangement of the pictures; we tried to place activities and organizations in their natural background so each scene would be more familiar to you. The second difference is that we have tried to emphasize to a greater degree the academic aspect of school since this is its main purpose and most of our time is spent in the classroom. The third is the arrangement of the calendar of events in a chronological order so the year may be seen and remembered in its true form.

We hope each of these changes will accomplish its intended goal and that you will find this yearbook to be both enjoyable and informative.

DEDICATION

To you, Mr. Luther E. Sweet, we the class of 1964, dedicate our yearbook. It is very difficult, however, for us to express our gratitude to you, whom we hold in such high esteem, particularly in a limited amount of space. We can only say that we appreciate the endless patience and understanding you have had with us under the many trying conditions to which we have subjected you during the four years you have been one of our instructors, and are thankful for your painstaking efforts to aid us in every possible manner both during and after school. These are only two examples of the commendable qualities you have displayed and the innumerable, yet to many people, unknown, contributions you have made not only to our class, but to the entire school. It is because of these many unselfish and thoughtful deeds that we proudly and yet humbly dedicate our yearbook to you.

OUR PAST

Looking back to our Freshman year of High School, one cannot recall that we were the usual and typically timid group when we entered in 1960. We were, on the contrary, quite bold, having already passed two years with Mr. Smith and Mr. Dowd. Our fearless leaders were Bob Rausch, President, Bill Kernan, Vice-President, Bill Swanburg, Treasurer, and Paula Pappas, Secretary, but Mr. Foley soon put them as well as the rest of us in our place! The Freshman Reception gave everyone a laugh trying to guess who was behind each costume. Our President was finally coerced by the Seniors into leading us in singing the School Song.

Immediately we began planning for sports, clubs, assemblies, dances, and maybe some studying. "Moldy" and Peter were elected to the Student Council, Alan and "Moldy" represented us in the Athletic Association, and Rodney played on the Soccer team. Only Jill participated in the Girl's Varsity, but did the best job on the team! Alan, Bob Lefebvre, Steve, Bob Morin, Auggie, and Rodney constituted half of the J. V. team, and all of our talented skiers were in the Ski Club: Pam, Penny, Rodney, Alan, Peter, and Judy.

"Crystal Moments" was the theme of the Carnival that year, in which everyone in our class enthusiastically took part. We had fun tobogganing, and looked forward to more skating parties at the Base of the Mountain!

Can you remember dissection in biology class? Not TOO many slides were broken, and formaldehyde had us well preserved for the rest of the year!

In the play, "I Remember Mama," Janet, and Tom did spirited jobs, and received an "excellent" rating in the Drama Festival at Durham. We all knew they could do it!

Bob Rausch, Ken, Brenda, Judy, Peter, Bob Merrill, Bob Lefebvre, and George contributed their musical talents to the School Band, and seven angelic voices were added to the Chorus: Penny, Carol, Pam, Nancy, Laurie, Jo, and Paula.

Our eager participation in the Dramatics Club was balanced this year by a solitary "Frosh" in the F.T.A. and two in the F.H.A. 1961 left us one alternative to save our class: our dance, "Spring Fever," which turned out to be one of the FEW Freshmen dances to make money!

September 1961 arrived, and we all felt rather dignified. Our President was "Moldy," Vice-President, Bob Hale, and the "old reliables," Bill Swanburg, Treasurer, and Paula, Secretary, were also present. Rodney and Paula became members of the Athletic Association, and Bob Rausch and Bob Hale sneaked into the Student Council.

Eric, Auggie, Steve, Bob Lefebvre, and Bob Morin played on the Soccer team, with Mr. Smith as the Coach. Brenda and Pam Burns were our energetic cheerleaders whom we naturally thought were the best.

In the presentation of four 1-act plays, each representing a class, ours, "Antic Spring," was a "chef d'oeuvre" of which we all were proud. Their performance in the N.H. Drama Festival secured an excellent rating.

"Et tu, Brute!" Shakespeare is being appreciated in English class!

The Hi-Fi Combo became active that year and displayed its competent ability very well. (Of course the credit can be given to Bob Rausch and Peter!)

On the Varsity were Bob Lefebvre, Bob Bailey, Auggie, Steve, and Bob Morin, while Pam Pollard, Jill, and Helen gave strength to the Girls' Team. George, Alan, Bob Hale, Eric, and Tommy played on the J.V. team, coached by Mr. Hale.

In the Carnival, "Festival on Snow," named by Judy, Sue was chosen as an aide to the Queen. When the points were computed, we were elated, having come in a close second! No one could say we had not put up a good fight!

The school buses certainly came through this winter. We are grateful that our persistent drivers dared to drive in some of the snow storms we received!

Tommy, Bob Rausch, Peter, and Nancy (as "Gay," a scintillating personality!) acted in the play "You Can't Take It With You." Janet, Peter, and Charlotte entered the Speech Tournament (with Mrs. Zeller's help!).

The Sophomore Hop, which could not have been possible without the skillful planning committee, was another success for our treasury!

Brave Mr. Sweet coached a baseball team on which Bob Hale, Rodney, Eric, and Paul played. "Moldy" was our class "Babe Ruth."

At the Spring Musicale, Mr. Buffington introduced his Double Octet, alias the Sigma Delta Omega Chorale, with its best singers in our class, and Sharon as pianist. The School Band played "Exodus," and there was no doubt that the audience was in a melancholic mood until the "Overture of 1812" rang out!

A Gym Team was formed under the supervision of Mr. Gillespie and included Jon, Bob Lefebvre, Dick Melhorn, and Peter. We all held our breaths as they performed for us in the spring.

June of '62 eventually came with most of us wondering how we ever passed Mr. Simpson's class!

Robert Rausch and Peter took chemistry at St. Paul's Advanced Summer School during the vacation, both having fun and learning new techniques.

1963 had extra appeal for us because we were now "upper classmen." "Moldy" was President, Alan the Vice-President, our Secretary was Paula, and we trusted Billy Swanburg to again be our Treasurer.

With the appreciated help of some of our parents, a group visited the State Hospital in Concord. It was a rewarding experience, and we did NOT leave anyone there!

Mrs. Zeller presently began with the production of the play, "The Corn is Green," in which Eric, Tommy, Bob Rausch, Jon, Peter, and Rodney acted. In a second play, "Opening Night," Judy played the part of "Thelma."

In November, a bus was chartered taking us to U.N.H. to see Dickens' "Pickwick Papers." It was fascinating, and the members of the Dramatics Club acquired new methods to improve their own acting!

The Soccer Team won the League Championship and played in the Tournament at St. Anthony's. Charlotte and Brenda were our cheerleaders, keeping everybody in the spirit. The basketball team followed this good example, and defeated the Alumni for the first time in a long while.

"Wonderland by Night" made the Christmas Concert the best ever, and the Concert Choir sang the "Ave Maria" in an inspiring manner. Everyone agreed that the tedious hours of practice were worth it!

"Silver Shadows," named by Paula, was that year's Carnival, and we came in FIRST!! Brenda was an aide to the Queen, and our "Snoopy" was a much-praised sculpture!

Mr. Tarr was still trying to convince his classes that Pascal's triangle actually worked, but we had our own theories!

Peter was the only courageous one to enter the Speech Tournament, doing "Kate and Petruchio." (With a name like that, you can imagine the fun he had!)

The F.T.A. became active with Paula as President, Bruce as Vice-President, and included many other members from our class. In the spring, Bruce, Sharon, and Paula attended the State Convention at Plymouth, and would have been lost without the help of Mr. Jenkins, the advisor. Carol was the efficient President of the F.H.A., and had been very assiduous in preparing for the June displays.

The Shop class found isometrics a challenge; thank goodness Mr. Battey was there to help them!

Voila, "OKLAHOMA"! Under patient direction of Mrs. Zeller, and choral conduction of Mr. Buffington, the production of this play was a historical success: the first musical at G.H.S. Many of us were in the chorus, or danced, and there were also numerous people working diligently backstage and on the lighting.

In the Spring Concert, the Chorus, accompanied by Sharon, had everybody clapping to "Ride the Chariot," and "Body and Soul" received a tremendous applause thanks to the persevering direction of Mr. Ferdinando!

"Inn of the Eleventh Happiness," our Prom, was made an incomparably stupendous success by the complete class! The judges could not have made a better choice when they chose Carol Deel for the Queen, and she looked extremely beautiful in the Japanese setting of the gym which had been breathlessly transformed by the decorations' committee!

It seemed like we would never have finished "Macbeth" without the assistance of Mrs. Danos, who made it very interesting to read.

Alan was chosen editor and Charlotte business manager of our class yearbook. Planning was immediately begun and Charlotte, Janet, Sharon, Paula, Sue, Joan Goodwin, and Lucy went to the Yearbook Convention at Durham, having an enjoyable experience, and also trying to assemble all the information presented by the various speakers.

On Mountain Day, Bob Rausch and several followers left at dawn to climb Mt. Chocorua. At the summit, after being joined by others from the class, he assembled a transmitter while the rest stood by, ready to push him over the cliff should he fail to contact anyone!

June was fast in its arrival, and the summer of 1963 passed with acceleration. Alan was a delegate on the Security Council at the Model U.N. Assembly at Plymouth, Bob Rausch took physics and Peter took calculus at St. Paul's Advanced Summer Course. Lucy went to Girls' State, and Bob Lefebvre and Bruce Sprague attended Boys' State. Sharon and Bob Rausch even played in the Weare Band, getting practice on their instruments which they otherwise might NOT have done.

We returned anxiously this last year to G.H.S., to greet new teachers and harass old ones, with the universal desire of graduating in June, 1964. We all think kindly and very appreciatively of the faculty, and hope they will not remember us with TOO many regrets!

But, above everything else, we truly want to succeed during our last year at G.H.S. -- together.

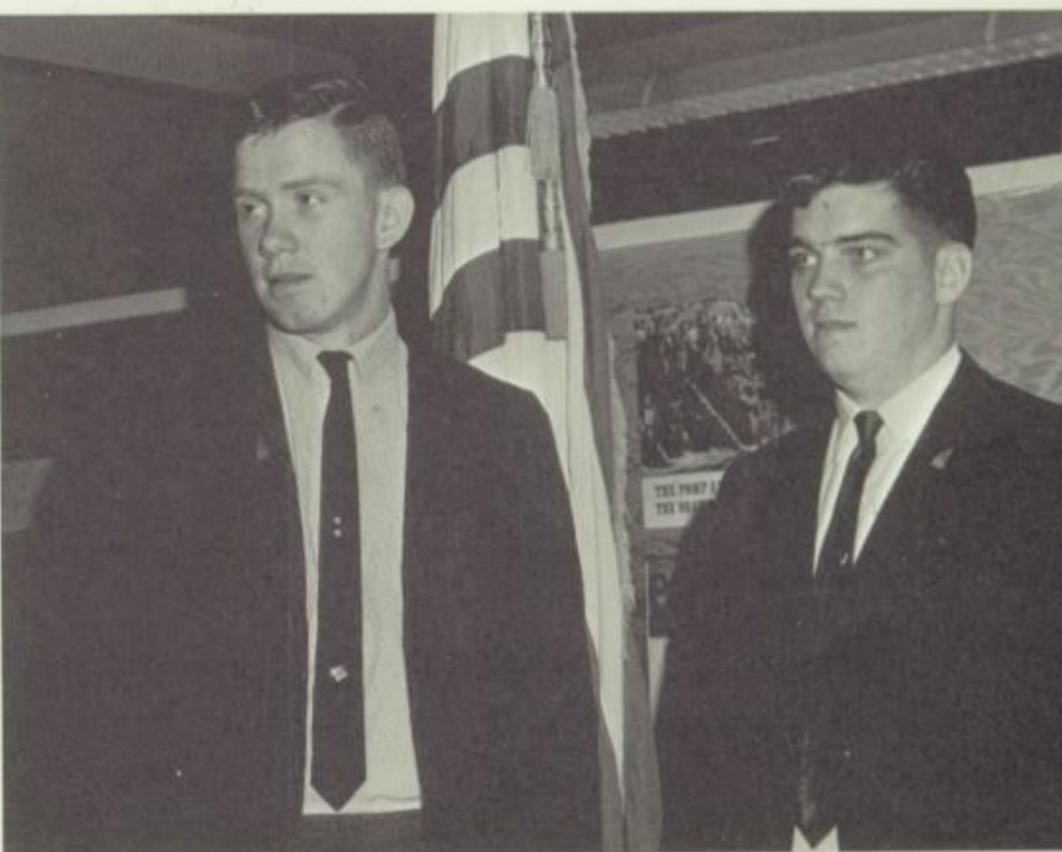

"Chairman Lucy of the Labor Committee."

Girls' and Boys' State are annual programs at Durham that teach High School students the importance of State government in their daily lives. Lucy Fellows, Bob Lefebvre, and Bruce Sprague represented G.H.S., participating in "town meetings," rallies, and legislative sessions, each finding it an informative experience. Bruce was a senator on the agriculture committee, and Bob was a representative on the military committee.

ST. PAUL'S SUMMER SCHOOL

"250 volts and non-working oscilloscopes!"

St. Paul's Summer School offers numerous courses to exceptional students each year. Every student is required to take a major, and minor in English. Robert Rausch and Peter Hecker have taken advanced chemistry, each with a superior rating, and last summer Robert took advanced physics with a superior rating, and Peter took differential calculus and was a ranking scholar. Peter will take integral calculus this year. Both have found the courses rewarding and have learned new methods in math and science.

We are continually introduced to new information, skills, and concepts in school, and the result of this is an endless procession of questions. However, the faculty is always to be found willing and able to help us out of our state of confusion.

It is not easy to sell ads for a yearbook, especially with the competition which is encountered. A great amount of determination is needed to continue to call on stores and other commercial establishments after being repeatedly told that the concern already has enough advertising. However, this years advertising staff proved themselves capable of meeting this challenge and the result of their efforts was remarkable.

Auggie and Rodney were this year's co-captains, and their leadership proved to be excellent as the team had nine victories against only four losses. They went on to play in the tournament against Raymond, giving everything they had. The result was a close, hard-fought game. Luck did not seem to be on our side, however, on that Saturday amidst the drizzle and cold. Following the game, the team attended a banquet at the home of Mr. Smith, their coach. Mr. Smith has always done an amazing job in building a top rate team, and everyone knows the squad would have been lost without his guidance.

"Time Out for Ginger" was a three act comedy revolving around the family of Howard Carol. Mr. Carol advocated freedom of expression, not expecting his own daughter to derive a distorted interpretation of his words.

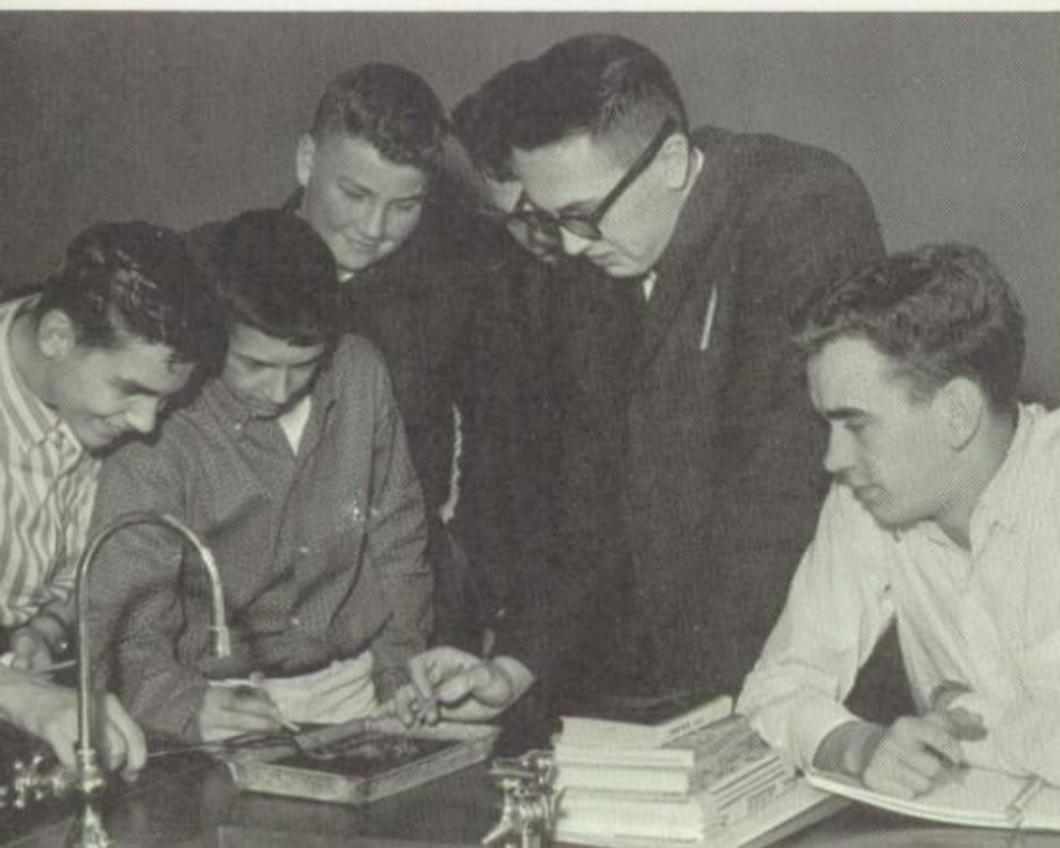

Fourteen-year old Ginger decided to become a girl football hero. As the play progressed, so does the confusion. Finally, Ginger learns not to compete with boys, but to go out with them.

An essential part of our education is English, and is without a doubt as important if not more important than the other subjects we may encounter. Foreign languages as well as foreign countries are subjects of intrigue. However, the difficulty of learning a language which is not native presents to every student a real challenge. It is equally as difficult for an instructor. He not only has to teach students to speak and read French, but to actually think in the language. The school is very fortunate to have teachers which are capable of succeeding in this task.

SPEECH TOURNAMENT

Those who entered the Speech Tournament for the first time this year found that there are certain regulations with which a contestant must comply. Speeches had to be committed to memory and were limited to ten minutes. The categories from which one was allowed to choose a speech included humor, drama, oration, interpretation, and extempore.

The school's participation was particularly outstanding and although stiff competition was encountered at the preliminaries in Portsmouth, those representing us proved to be well prepared. Almost all the G.H.S. students went on to the finals in Durham.

"Are you sure that's the right way, Charlotte?"

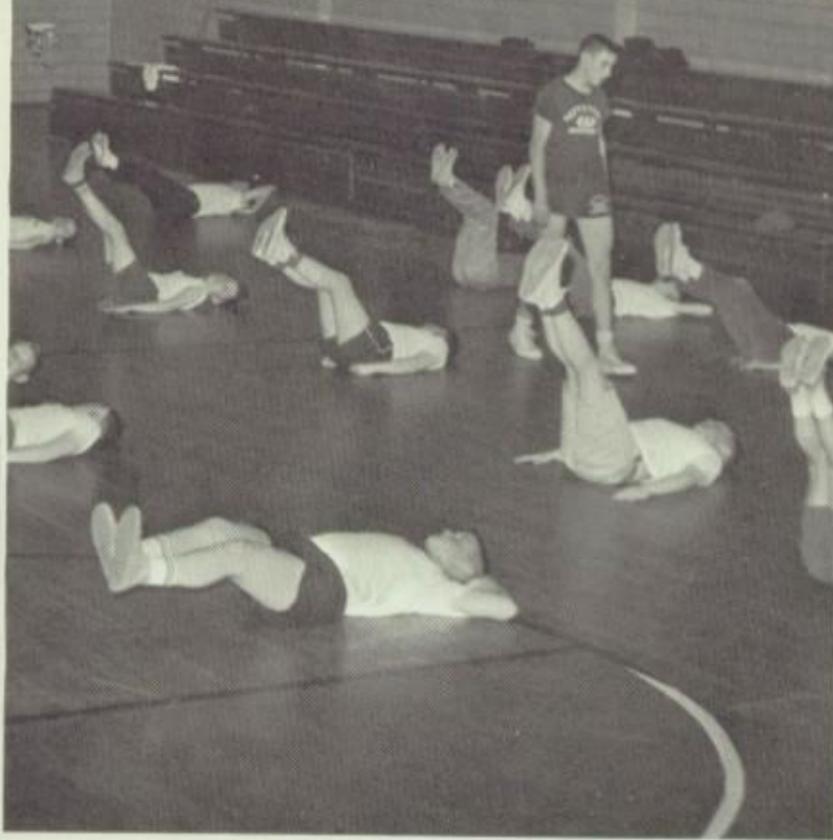

"That gruelling lunch-hour practice."

"Give him enough rope and he'll . . ."

"What an awkward way to move!"

PHYSICAL EDUCATION

Mr. Konieczny is our gym instructor and maintains a high standard of physical fitness among the students through calisthenics, gymnastics, and team sports.

"Humpty Dumpty sat on a wall . . ."
